

CPA (Certified Public Accountant)

The CPA training course program is delivered by experts in the field of financial accounting, auditing, and taxation to inspire and assist candidates earn the prestigious US CPA credential by effectively passing the exam with ease and confidence.

Becoming a CPA is a challenging journey, but with the guidance of highly experienced and qualified instructors, coupled with the best learning material and conducive studying ambiance, earning the CPA certification is very much within your reach.

The Certifying Body: AICPA

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants is the world's largest member association representing the accounting profession, with more than 412,000 members in 144 countries. AICPA has an established history of protecting the public interest since 1887. Its members represent many areas of practice, including business and industry, public practice, government, education and consulting.

Minimum Entry Requirements : (Requirements vary by state/jurisdiction)

- Most states now require 150 semester hours of completed college education
- 19 states allow candidates to sit at 120 hours, but require 150 hours for certification.
- Number of accounting hours is dependent on state requirements

What this program includes:

- Over 150 hours of live lectures
- An overview of all critical concepts
- Covers FAR, AUD, BEC and REG content specification stated in AICPA body of knowledge
- End-of-session questions and explanations to test your understanding
- Mock Exams after each part
- Revision of main concepts and critical topics
- Tips on CPA exam preparation and study planning
- An extensive reference bibliography

